John Stromatt Head, S. 6995
BA-J/MCS

Mrs. R. L. Wilkinson
Cooler, Box 14
Georgia

Dear Madam:

The data which follow were obtained from papers on file in the pension claim, S. 6995, based on the Revolutionary War service of John Stromatt Head.

He was born August 5, 1763, in Calpeper County, Virginia. The names of his parents were not given.

While a resident of Spartanburg District, South Carolina, he enlisted about the middle of October, 1780, served as private in Captains Thomas Farrow's and Potts' companies in Colonel Benjamin Roebuck's South Carolina regiment, was in the battle of Cowpens and at the siege of Ninety-Six and was discharged after the surrender of Cornwallis. He was subsequently engaged in scouting parties until the close of the war, no further details given.

After the Revolution he lived in Elbert County, Georgia, in Gwinnett County, Georgia, with his son, James, and in Morgan County, Georgia, where he was allowed pension on his application executed July 11, 1846.

This soldier married Barbara who was born June 19, 1771. Her maiden name and the date and place of marriage were not given.

Their children were:

Elisabeth	born May	7, 1787
Cathrine	" January	15, 1789
Gincy	" November	11, 1790
Nancy	" October	25, 1791
Unety	" May	27, 1793
James	" November	23, 1795
Polly	" May	19, 1798
John S.	" August	23, 1800
Fanny	" June	3, 1802
Thomas	" July	11, 1804,	married July 8, 1834, Patsy Williams who was born May 22, 1810.

Lucinday Carrolino, the daughter of Thomas and his wife, Patsy, was born May 2, 1826. These two names also appear but the relationship is not shown; Nancy Garner Head born August 2, 1828, and John Williams Head born March 7, 1830.

There are no further data relative to family.

Very truly yours

A. D. HILLER
