Description:

"To my beloved daughter Margaret Baugh [#6115C/1] a negro woman Charity and her increase, and a boy Bob during her natural life, and to her heirs after her death. Her husband Peter Baugh [#6115C] to have no control over said property and they are not to be sold to satisfy his debts whether contracted before or after his marriage to my daughter. Daughter Margaret is also to have some furniture and an old negro woman named Caroline, and any other property that remains after paying my just debts."

Taylor Co., Butler, The Gospel Messenger, Nov 1886 (Vol. 8, No. 11), Obituary of Nathan Bussey [#611572/1] {23701}

“Nathan Bussey departed this life on the evening of September 17, 1886, aged 88 years, 7 months and 12 days, at his home in Talbot Co., Ga. of paralysis. On the 3rd of May, 1821, he was married to Miss Lucy Baugh, with whom he lived until September 7, 1861, when she died. Eight children were born to them, six boys and two girls, five of whom fell asleep before father died. One died in infancy, the remainder grew to manhood, and all were strong Primitive Baptists, two sons, Elders Nathan Bussey and Hezekiah Bussey, being ministers. In 1821, in his 24th year, he united with the Baptist and was baptized by Elder John Robinson into the fellowship of Crooked Creek Church, Putnam Co., Ga. When the split took place he was living in Talbot County and withdrew from Mount Vernon Church and was in the constitution of Salem Church where his membership has remained until his married a second time on July 26, 1863 to Mrs. C. R. Williams, who survives him. By Elder Hezekiah Bussey.

We will mention one single thing illustrative of his Christian character. He lived and died a member of Salem Church, Talbot Co., Ga. This was once a flourishing church of white membership, but the white members gradually died out and moved away, until about twelve years ago there remained but two white members, our deceased brother and his son William, with a large colored membership who called a colored pastor over them. But our dear, sainted brother remained until his death. When we consider his social standing, one of the oldest and most respected families in middle Georgia, and the condescension and humility displayed in this single act in the face of the class prejudice in the South since the war, we are made to say, in all sincerity, "This was a man! and a man of God!" Let it be told to the living, and let them tell it to the generation to come. Elder John Richard Respress.”
