She was the daughter of Aunt Amanday BAUGH who died here only a few days since, and a sister of Hon. J.F. BAUGH, of this county and Mrs. B.M. FARIS and Mrs. Wm. LOVELACE of this place. The funeral sermon was preached yesterday afternoon by the Rev. J.R. PEOPLES and the remains laid to rest on Cemetery Hill about 4 o'clock. Laurel Co., Mountain Echo, Oct 1899, Obituary of Lucy Baugh [#6334485] {23537}

“CALLED TO REST-About two weeks ago Miss Lucy Baugh, the daughter of the late Hon J. F. Baugh, of this county, and sister of Mr. C. R. Baugh, of this place, who was a student at the Female College at Midway, Ky., was taken ill with that dreaded disease, appendicitis, with which she suffered till Sunday, the 1st inst., when she was taken to Louisville to have an operation performed. The operation was not performed, however, till Wednesday of last week and the abscess had already ruptured and her bowels had been saturated with the poison. She endured the operation very well, but as blood poison had already set up, her recovery was impossible and she lingered till Friday night, when she passed away. Her remains were brought back to the old homestead at Mershon's Cross Roads for burial Miss Lucy was a dear sweet girl and leaves many relatives and other friends to mourn her death.”
