"A BIT OF ROMANCE. Concord Correspondence Charlotte Observer, 13th.: A bit of romance came to light in town tonight, through the presence of and elderly bride and groom. Some 25 years ago Miss Annie Cress [#5835/2], daughter of Moses Cress, had an importunate suitor in the person of Mr. Jake Blackwelder [#5835], whom she tried to discourage in his assiduous attentions. But he was not to be shaken, and finally to get rid of her ardent suitor she went clear out to Illinois. There she found herself in high favor, and this time with Mr. Jackson Cress, whom she married. Some time ago Mrs. Cress was left a widow and Mr. Blackwelder, hearing of this fact, concluded there was nothing like asking, and Mrs. Cress' reply was that if he would send the money to pay railroad fare to Salisbury she would marry him. The money was forthcoming in a hurry and the two were here today as bride and groom. After a short visit to relatives they will go to Illinois to live."

Iredell Co., Statesville, The Landmark, 14 Jun 1904, Obituary of Col. L. A. Blackwelder [#52D1] {14936}

Col. Blackwelder was a veteran of the Mexican war and received a pension from the government on account of his services, but he was better known as the veteran policeman. He had served on the police force of Charlotte from the year 1855 until about seven years ago, when he retired with a pension. He was an efficient officer, was rated to be the best runner in the county, was noted for strength and speed in the county and on account of some of his feats as an officer was known by practically everybody in Mecklenburg.

More Than 200 Friends and Relatives Attend Celebration at the Home of Mr. N. F. Blackwelder [#521221].

More than 200 of his friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. N. F. Blackwelder, Bethany township, yesterday and celebrated with him his 57th birthday. . . .
Mr. and Mrs. Blackwelder settled just off the site of their present home and went to work. Mr. Blackwelder bought 100 acres of land, a small mule and harness on credit. . . . Today Mr. Blackwelder owns more than 600 acres of land, as the result of the industry of himself and wife. They have eight children – five sons and three daughters – all of whom are at home or on the place.”

Iredell Co., Statesville, The Landmark, 3 Dec 1923, Obituary of George L. Deaton

“Mooresville Enterprise, 29th.
Mr. George L. Deaton, aged 76 years and five months, died Monday afternoon at 5 o’clock at the home of his great nephew, Mr. Oscar Spears, several miles west of this city, where he made his home for the past several months. Deceased was a son of the late James and Sarah Deaton and was born and reared at the old Jimmie Deaton place, where the Mooresville cotton mill now stands. . . . In 1886 he left Concord and located for a short while at Memphis, Tenn., but he had been there only a short while when the late William Patterson, of Cabarrus, overtook him with his family, en route to Texas. Mr. Deaton joined the Patterson party and after a few days at Memphis, he was married to Mr. Patterson’s daughter, Mrs. Sarah Blackwelder [#52A5/1 ?], whom he had known back in Concord. He journeyed on to Texas and located at Bryan, where he lived for many years. . . . Mrs. Deaton died probably eighteen years ago . . .”

Rev. and Mrs. D. P. Waters announce the marriage of their daughter Delia Esther [#52B781/1], to Mr. John Shelly Blackwelder [#52B781], on Wednesday, October the 8th, 1924, Mooresville, N. C.
The bride is the oldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Waters and is a successful public school teacher. The groom is the eldest son of the late John Blackwelder [#52B78] and Mrs. D. E. Overcash [#52B78/1].
The ceremony was performed by the father of the bride, Rev. D. P. Waters, at the parsonage, who used the beautiful ring service of the Methodist Church.”
Funeral of Ex. Sheriff J. W. Blackwelder at Catawba.

Ex-Sheriff John W. Blackwelder, of Hickory, brother-in-law of Mr. J. W. C. Long, of Statesville, died Saturday evening shortly after 9 o'clock, after an illness of about a week, following a stroke of paralysis. The funeral was held from the residence Tuesday and interment followed at Catawba at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Blackwelder, who was 70 years of age, was a great friend and admirer of the late Charles B. Aycock and was a candidate for sheriff when Mr. Aycock, then candidate for governor, spoke in Newton. He was elected sheriff of Catawba county, first in 1898, leading his ticket in that election. He was again nominated and elected in the year 1900 and in 1902, although the Democratic party in Catawba county was pledged to two-year terms for officers, and in spite of the fact that Sheriff Blackwelder was not a candidate, the convention lacked only one-half of a vote in nominating him for a third term.

He was elected as mayor of Hickory in the spring of 1908 and served for one term, declining renomination.

After his term of sheriff in 1903, Mr. Blackwelder moved to Hickory and became cashier of the Hickory Banking and Trust Company, now the Consolidated Trust Company. He retired in 1908 on account of his health.

Besides his wife, who was Miss Mary J. Long, Mr. Blackwelder is survived by four children, Bascom B. Blackwelder, George W. Blackwelder, Mrs. J. B. Gibbs and Mrs. Claude A. Jordan, all of Hickory.
