"Floyd County Pioneers Recognized at Reunion

The Pioneer Association honored distinguished citizens during the 2002 annual Old Settler's Reunion, Saturday, May 25th.

Pioneers recognized for their contributions to Floyd County were: Pioneer Couple Edell and Lovene Moore of Floydada; Pioneer Woman Jonelle (Burke) Fawver of Floydada; and Pioneer Man Francis L. Montandon of Lockney.

Pioneer Woman Jonelle (Burke) Fawver of Floydada was born March 10, 1926 in Conway, Arkansas. Her parents, Dee Witt and Martha Lee (Hickman) Burke, moved to Floyd County in 1928, when Jonelle was two years of age.

Jonelle attended schools in Sandhill and Floydada. She graduated from Floydada High School in 1944. Upon graduation, she moved to Amarillo to work at Pantex. She returned to Floydada to marry Thomas Leslie Fawver on June 2, 1946. Three children were born to them. They were: Eilene Francis of Carrollton; Gayle Ferguson of Slaton; and Larry Fawver of Lubbock. She has five grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Jonelle has been employed by various businesses in Floydada, including Lighthouse Electric, Perrys, and the County Tax Assessor's office. She was elected Tax Assessor of Floyd County in 1972 and retired in 1987.

After retirement, Jonelle remained busy holding local elections, conducting registration during Old Settler's, working with the Spirit of Sharing, and helping ladies who were unable to drive or stay home alone. She is a longtime member of the First United Methodist Church."

Tom Green Co., San Angelo Standard-Times, 19-25 Jan 2003, Obituary of Jack Wayne Kiser [#1874A] {26956}

“Jack Wayne Kiser, 71, of San Angelo, passed away in San Angelo at his residence. A private family graveside service was Friday, Jan. 17, in Midway Cemetery. He was born Oct. 3, 1931, in San Angelo, the youngest in a family of ten children. He was Jack Wayne to family and friends. Though odds were not always in his favor, he graduated from Lake View High School and went on to earn a bachelor's degree from the University of Houston. The memories we most have of Jack Wayne Kiser are of a very motivating coach and teacher. He began teaching in 1962, and retired in 1988. We will never truly know the number of lives that were touched and changed during his 26-year career. He was not an overly emotional man, but proved his care and concern through his consistent teaching in having pride, self worth and insistence upon always doing your best and improving on the next round. He was able to instill the importance of humor in all life situations. There was never a dull moment at home or school, and he was never at a loss for words. If a speaker didn't show for the sports banquet "get Coach Kiser, he can do it" was the general consensus. Although he is no longer with us his legacy will carry on through the lives of those he touched. He is survived by two sons and daughter-in-law, Mitchell and Kelli Kiser and Michael Kiser, all of San Antonio; four daughters and sons-in-law, Debra and Roger Neill of Big Lake, Kathy and David Sewell of Alvin, Karen and Tim Ender of Pittsburg, Texas, and Vicki and Matt Wagner of Corinth; one brother, Bill Kiser of Tyler; two sisters, Naomi Womble of Spokane, Wash., and Ruth Barrier of Fresno, Calif.; grandchildren, Ken and Christy Neill of San Antonio, Leslie Neill of Big Lake, Karly Kiser and Lindy Sewell, both of Alvin, Aylvia Ender, Mattily Ender and Ethan Ender, all of Pittsburg, Texas, Jonathan Kiser and Sara Kiser, both of San Antonio, and Alayna Lise Wagner who will arrive in February; and one great-grandchild, Kendra Neill of San Angelo.”
