Hilliard, Charles Robert (#61323/1)

Page County's oldest citizen died at his home in Honey Run Hollow about 3:00 Wednesday morning (20 Jan 1936) after an illness of several months. Mr. Hilliard who was in his ninety-fourth year has been one of the most active and remarkable men Page County has ever had. He has been married 5 times and has outlived four of his wives. As a young man he fought through the Civil War and had a record of remarkable bravery. All his life, Mr. Hilliard has lived very actively. For many years he hauled extract wood across the Blue Ridge mountains through all kinds of weather conditions and oft times sleeping out in the open under the stars wherever he happened to stop on account of darkness. Up to a few months ago he put in a full days work on his farm every day. Many of his neighbors attest the fact that it took a good man to keep up with him. All through his illness, he was restrained with great difficulty from getting up and putting on his clothes and going about his daily chores. The greater part of Page County's history has transpired during the life of Mr. Hilliard. He helped to build the famous old Gordonsville Turnpike and afterwards hauled over it for many years. He helped to keep Page County fair name spotless throughout the Civil War. He leaves 6 to mourn his passing: his wife, Mrs. C. R. Hilliard, children - W. J. Hilliard, Jacob Hilliard, Samuel Hilliard, John Hilliard, G. B. Hilliard, Frank Hilliard, 51 grandchildren & 62 great grandchildren. Burial in Leaks Chapel Cemetery.

Housden, William Oscar (#623231)

The sudden death Tuesday morning (09 May 1944) of this week of William Oscar Housden, 50, a prominent citizen of the Marksville section came as a shock to his family and friends. Mr. Housden had seemed in his usual health and suffered a heart attack while in his truck near the Frank Fultz residence west of Stanley about 8:00 a. m. He was the son of the late John W. Housden and Emma Elizabeth Higgs Housden of Newport and was born on April 23, 1894. He attended the county schools and in 1927 moved from Newport to the John L. Koontz farm east of Stanley, which he purchased and had run successfully for many years. A member of the I. O. O. F. Lodge No 53 of Stanley, he was a man intensely interested in his home and community and was always willing to be of service to others whenever possible. He is survived by his wife, the former Edna Blanche Foltz, two daughters, Mrs. Fred (Iva) Mattes and Mrs. McClure (Velma) Carroll both of Baltimore, Md. and a sister, Mrs. Clarence (Mary) Price of the Newport section. Three children died in infancy. Interment in the Graves Chapel Cemetery. Active pallbearers: Cletus Cave, Shirley Kiblinger, Isaac Long, Ray Koontz, Ivan Koontz and Harry Long. Honorary pallbearers: Clark Kauffman, C. C. Louderback, Lester Biedler, L. O. Housden, R. D. Koontz, C. C. Graves, Morris Dunlap, A. P. Kite and C. D. Price.

Hutchinson, Harry (#431121)

Last rites were held Tuesday morning for Harry Hutchinson, Stanley resident, who died at his home early Sunday morning (08 Sep 1946) after an illness which extended over a period of six months. Mr. Hutchinson, 61 was the last member of his family. Born on November 10, 1884 he was the son of the late John and Lillie Hutchinson. Until his health began to fail he had followed his trade as a millwright. He was honest, hard- working and well liked throughout the community. For the past several years his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Al Hutchinson, had resided with him and since the former's death, his aunt had managed the home and cared for him during his illness. Rev. W. J. Whitesell officiated at the funeral which was held Tuesday from Graves Chapel. Burial took place in the chapel cemetery. Pallbearers were: Claude Kiblinger, Cletus Cave, Shirley Kiblinger, Charles N. Graves, E. J. Shuler and Cecil Graves. Honorary were: A. C. Finter, Rufus Cave, N. J. Dunlap, Bud Norman, W. T. Beahm, Frank Kiblinger and John Wolfersberger. Out-of-town relatives in attendance at the funeral were his aunt, Mrs. S. B. Viands of Shenandoah, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weer of Sykesville, Md. and Mrs. Edna Koontz of Washington, D. C.

Kite, Lizzie Lillard (#8275/1)

w/o John E. Kite died at her home at Leaksville Friday morning (03 Sep 1937) after a lingering illness with cancer. Mrs. Kite was a d/o the late Silas Lillard of Mud Pike. She was 79 years of age & had been married for many years. They resided at Alma for many years where Mr. Kite was engaged in the mercantile business. The deceased is survived by her husband & the following children: Mrs. (Sina) Elon Rothgeb of the Mill Creek section, this county, Mrs. Edna Shirley of Falls Church, Va. & Mrs. (Alma) Earl Jenkins of Washington, DC. She is also survived by one brother, Wm. R. Lillard of Hagerstown & the following sisters: Mrs. Ernest (Annie) Dovel of Reliance, Va. & Mrs. D. L. Kauffman of Luray. The funeral which was largely attended, was held from the Leaksville Christian Church Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The services were in charge of her pastor, El.d J. B. Jenkins of the Old School Baptist church. Burial was in the Leaksville Cemetery.

Koontz, Carson H. (#4646)

Friends in this county have been advised of the death of Carson H. Koontz, which occurred in Baltimore at 3 o'clock Friday morning (07 Feb 1919) as a result of complication of diseases. He was 42 years of age and s/o William & Adeline Koontz, both deceased. His wife before marriage was Miss Lula Coffman, of Shenandoah, this county. He is survived by three brothers: J. T. Koontz of Tenth Legion, Rockingham County, W. T. and D. C. Koontz of Shenandoah and four sisters, Mrs. S. S. Shaver of Lacey Springs, Mrs. L. A. Burke of New Market, Mrs. W. F. Shaver of Baltimore & Mrs. W. F. Hemp of Remington. The body was brought to Shenandoah last Saturday, where the funeral services were conducted the interment being made in the Methodist Cemetery. The death of Mr. Koontz causes deep regret. He had a host of friends who esteemed him for many qualities of sterling manhood.

Koontz, Frank L. (#7158/1)

A large concourse of friends and relatives were in attendance at the funeral of Frank L. Koontz, 68, on Monday afternoon of this week at the Mt. Zion Brethren Church. Mr. Koontz' demise occurred Saturday June 9th, 1945 at 2. p. m. at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital following several years of ill health. He entered the hospital for treatment on April 27th. Owner and manager of the Walnut Shade Cannery, one of the most progressive canneries in the county, Mr. Koontz was also engaged in extensive farming. For many years he had been connected with county politics, having served several years as a member of the Page County Board of Supervisors from the Marksville District. He was a son of the late Jacob Daniel and Betty Lee Koontz and was born on April 4, 1877 in the Alma section. His entire life was spent in Page County where he took a great deal of interest in all civic affairs. On December 23, 1896 he married Miss Bertie Shuler who preceded him in death on September 8, 1934. The surviving children are: Ivan Koontz, Mrs. Harry (Betty) Long of Luray, Mrs. Russell (Alva) Martin of Unionville and Mrs. Walter (Iva Mae) Koontz of Elkton. Deceased children are: Isaac Newton and Jacob Daniel Koontz and an infant daughter. He leaves two sisters: Mrs. Amos (Bessie) Shuler who made her home with him and Mrs. Edgar (Lelia) Hite of Luray. A brother, Fred Koontz of Alma is deceased. Interment in the Mt. Zion Cemetery.

Louderback, I. N. (#41767)

The Stanley community was distressed on Saturday to learn of the death of one of its prominent and highly esteemed residents. I. N. Louderback, 56, who passed away early Saturday morning (09 Mar 1946) at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital following an illness of several months. He had been a hospital patient for several weeks. He was a well known insurance man and a devout member of the Stanley Baptist Church. He was also active in the Masonic Lodge No. 184 of Stanley and a member of the Modern Woodmen of America. He was always interested in civic enterprises and served as Town Councilman for a number of terms. A son of the late Isaac Newton and Eliza Walton Louderback, he was born at Grove Hill on September 14, 1889. He attended the county schools and was a graduate of Dunsmore Business College, Staunton, Va. When a young man, he married Miss Rosalie Elizabeth Manor, who survives with three children: I. N. Louderback Jr. of Luray, Charles Louderback of Stanley and Miss Phyllis Mae Louderback of Front Royal. He also leaves three brothers: C. E. Louderback and Wilmer Louderback of Shenandoah, Benjamin F. Louderback of Baltimore and a sister, Mrs. J. W. (Ollie) Frazier of Shenandoah. Funeral services on Tuesday from the Stanley Baptist Church with his pastor Rev. E. E. Sumpter in charge.
