“I, Sterling Shackelford, of Putnam County, Indiana, being in good general health and of right exercise of mind, make this my last Will and Testament.
First: I desire that my body be decently interred and that my funeral be conducted in a manner corresponding with my estate and situation in life. And as to such worldly estate as it has pleased God to entrust me with I dispose of the same in the following manner, towit;
I direct first that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my decease as possible, out of the first monies that shall come to the hand of my executor, from any portion of my estate. After which I will that all my remaining personal property go to my beloved wife during her natural life, and at her death to be equally divided between my daughter-Amelia Hardin and my son John W. Shackelford; and that all the real estate of which I shall die seized of or possessed of shall be divided as follows: towit: My two sons Thomas J. Shackelford and John W. Shackelford, shall have the west half of the southwest quarter of section twenty seven; also the north half of the east half of the southwest quarter of section twenty seven. Also my daughter-Amelia Hardin shall have the south half of the east half of the southwest quarter of section twenty seven. All being in township sixteen, north of range three west.

I also direct that my two sons--Thomas J. Shackelford and John W. Shackelford, pay my son Edmund R. Shackelford, fifty dollars as his remaining portion of my estate. Also Sarah S. Hardin, John S. Hardin, and James A. Hardin, my grand children, one hundred and twenty dollars each at the age of twenty one years. Also George W. Shackelford, my grandson, one hundred dollars at the age of twenty one.

I also will the legacy coming to me in Kentucky, to Thomas J. Shackelford and John W. Shackelford, to redeem the east half of the southwest quarter of section twenty seven, (the above described lands) from under mortgage. And I hereby make and ordain my two sons Thomas J. Shackelford and John W. Shackelford, executors of this my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I, Sterling Shackelford, the testator, have hereunto set my hand and seal the twenty seventh of June eighteen hundred and fifty. (June 27, 1850).
