“In the name of God, Amen:

I, James Shackelford, of Hardin County, State of Kentucky, being in a weak state of health, but of sound memory, calling to mind the uncertainty of this life, for the settling of my worldly affairs, do make this my last Will and Testament.

I place in the hands of my Executors hereinafter named, all my estate except what is hereafter named, to be disposed of in the following manner-towit: After my debts and funeral expenses are paid, my will and desire is, that the interest arising from the same shall be appropriated to the use and maintenance of Sarah Shackelford, widow of my brother John Shackelford, deceased; and for the use, maintenance and education of his four children-viz John, Maria, Eliza and Jeremiah. And if the interest and proceeds should not be sufficient to give them a reasonable support and education, said Executors may make use of as much of the principal as will be required for the same with this proviso: that in the event the above named Sarah Shackelford should marry, she shall have a horse, saddle and bridle, bed and furniture, and such other household furniture as she had when she married my brother John Shackelford, deceased, and nothing more. But if she should not marry and keep the above named children together, my will and desire is that she remain on my farm where we now live, and have the use of same together with the use of my negro boy Charles and negro woman Allis and her increase, and all the stock of every description, also wagons, ploughs, plows, gears, tools, Household and kitchen furniture now on the place; until the youngest child becomes of age.

And the above named Sarah Shackelford has the right to pay off my debts with the above named property, with the exception of the negroes and land. But if she should not think proper to keep house and the above named children together, then the above named property is to be sold, with the exception of the negroes, who are to be hired out until the above named children become of age, and my estate be equally divided between the above named surviving children, and the said Sarah Shackelford, who are to have share and share alike.

I will and bequeath to my two nephews John and Jeremiah Shackelford, as above named, my two shot guns, to be given to them at what age my Executor may think best. My will and desire is that my gold watch be kept by my friend Richard Richards until he can sell it for what he may consider a fair price, he then to hand the proceeds to my Executor hereinafter named. My will and desire is that my Executor shall be qualified in the usual manner with this exception-that they shall only give bond for their faithful performance, as I wish Sarah Shackelford to have the liberty of selling any of the personal property with the advice and consent of my Executors.

And I lastly nominate and appoint my friends John English and Richard Richards, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, revoking all other Wills by me made.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the twenty ninth day of January, eighteen hundred and forty five.

James Shackelford.
